By Billy Conner

MOST VALUABLE RAIDERS: Terry Woods, left and Darrell Schrock whose feats on the gridiron made it impossible to select one for the 1979 MVP award.

AWARD WINNING RAIDERS display the trophies that were presented to them at the annual fall sports program at the high school last Wednesday night. From left, Bob Dunnam, most dedicated; Ernie Chenault, Raider Award; Mark Kelso, Most Improved; and Steve Cobb, Best Defensive Back.

DARRELL SCHROCK, above was named to the first team, All-Region III Football Team at offensive end. Region III is comprised of the Seminole, Piedmont and Blue Ridge districts in Group AA.

TEAM MEMBERS OF THE SEMINOLE DISTRICT CHAMPIONS, Raiderettes, collected some additional awards for their season performances.

From left, Annette Carter, First Team All-District, was also named most valuable player; Susan Handy received honorable mention, All-District; Pam Guill received most improved player award; and Kim Hipps was recipient of the Raiderette Award. Johnna Belter, honorable mention, All-District, was unable to attend the awards banquet at the high school last Wednesday night.

FIRST TEAM, ALL SEMINOLE DISTRICT FOOTBALL PLAYERS who received their trophies from Coach Stuart Justus last Wednesday night. From left, Darrell Schrock, offensive end; Gus Paulette, offensive tackle/punter; Terry Woods, running back; Ernest Daye, defensive end; and William Scott, linebacker. These players also made the All-Regional Squad with Schrock on first team, Paulette, Woods and Daye, second team and Scott, honorable mention.

CROSS COUNTRY SPECIAL AWARDS were presented to Rick Caldwell, left and Craig Smith during ceremonies following the annual FALL SPORTS BANQUET at the high school last Wednesday night. Rick was voted Most Improved Runner while Craig was named Most Valuable Runner for 1979.

Little League Basketball Notice

The gyms will be open this Sat. morning, Dec. 8, around 9:30 a.m. for the Little League Basketball players. The children that have signed up between the ages of 8-9 and 10-11 years old will report to the gym at the Middle School. The 12-13 year olds will go to the Elementary School (Carver-Price) gym. Those who have not signed in these age groups should go to the gym that your age group is at.

Teams will be decided on and maybe go through a few drills. We will probably be there a couple of hours. You must have tennis shoes in order to play. Shirts will be provided. If any questions, please call Billy Thompson - 352-7304.
